

Talking homework September 20th 2017

Next week we will be looking at measuring and comparing the size of our hands and feet during maths lessons. Therefore this week we would like you to investigate who is the tallest person at home? Who is the shortest person at home? How tall are they? How tall are you? Please record what you have spoken about below.

Parents comments:
What did you talk about?