

Useful Websites: Tribal Tales

British Prehistory – BBC History

Background information on Stonehenge, Britain's tribes, death, burial, archaeological sites and artefacts.

The Stone Age

Stone Age picture library – Natural History Museum

A useful range of images of Stone Age artefacts.

Happisburgh – The earliest humans in northern Europe – The British Museum

Details of early Stone Age sites discovered on England's Norfolk coast.

The Stone Age – National Museums Northern Ireland

Background information on the Middle Stone Age and New Stone Age with information about finds from Ireland.

Hands on History: a day in a life if a 10-year-old in the Stone Age – BBC History

A two-minute video about life in the Late Stone Age – useful for showing children.

Stone Age living – Ancient Craft

A good resource aimed at older children and adults that provides lots of information, images and descriptions of homes, clothing and family life.

Visit Skara Brae – Historic Environment Scotland

Gives an overview of Skara Brae and information on how and when you can visit the site

The Bronze Age

The Bronze Age – The British Museum

Background information and downloadable resources.

Bronze Age image bank – The British Museum

A useful bank of images of artefacts suitable for showing in class.

Bronze Age – National Museums Northern Ireland

Background information on Bronze Age tools, weapons, gold jewellery, pottery, beads and flint arrowheads.

Bronze Age Britain – BBC History

Useful overview of the Bronze Age, aimed at older children and adults. Includes information about the Beaker People.

The Early Bronze Age – Young Archaeologists' Club

Shows facts about the Bronze Age

The Iron Age

Overview: Iron Age – BBC History

Covers the period between 800 BC and AD 43 and includes a section about 'bog bodies'. Aimed at more able readers and adults, but can be easily adapted.

The Iron Age – BBC History

Includes important facts about the Iron Age, including land use and farming, burial practice, use of iron, structures and sites plus images of artefacts.

Iron Age – National Museums Northern Ireland

Background information on Iron Age metalwork and art.

Life in an Iron Age Village – BBC History

Detailed information, useful for teachers to adapt to suit children's reading abilities.

How did Iron Age people live? - BBC Bitesize

Information about how Iron Age people lived during daily life.

Iron Age Celts – BBC Wales

A child-friendly site with interactive elements. Children can 'dig up the past' and look inside a round house.