Dear Beyonce & the twins,
~~to~~ I am writing to ask you if you would like to come to Seathorne Primary School's private event. (we would appreciate your reply)

Would you attend? Will you be free on the 17th of July 2017? You will only be there part-time of the time. We are all up-to-date on our inspections. The charity event is for my friend's disabled brother (who is seven). We have already: ran three miles, had a bike race and varied fundays. Owen - who's legs are paralyzed - needs a special wheel chair that ~~is~~ is over one million pounds; which is alot of money!

If you are not able to come on the 17th we ~~we~~ would have to ask someone else, we will pay for your accomodation. Owen said: "I will be very happy if you come to see me and my school. I would like to ~~sing~~ sing one of my favourite songs you wrote."

The wheel chair ^{provc} Owen has now, makes him ~~wait~~ slowly. Do you ~~to~~ like being let ~~do?~~ down? As it's a private event people have to pay £10 to come into the venue to have photos and autographs given, ~~we~~ we will be selling food and drinks. The food will be a marvellous BBQ; served outside with a range of fizzy drinks. Please feel free to bring a friend or two!

Yours Sincerely,
Katie [redacted]
